
DAR: normalized keys, learned query, original delta values. Routing is along depth at each token position.